ITINERARY

24 April 2026/ Day 1: Istanbul to CanakkaleMeals: L, D

After breakfast you will be driven to Gelibolu. Following check in at your hotel in Canakkale, enjoy the rest of the day at leisure.

This evening, dine in the hotel restaurant for dinner before preparing for the Anzac Dawn Service.

Later in the evening, you will be transferred to the Anzac Commemorative Site which opens to the public at 10.30pm on 24th April.

Important

Approximately 3 weeks before ANZAC day, you must register for a memorial card to access the ANZAC sites and services.

You will have to choose between attending either the Australian Memorial Service at Lone Pine Cemetery, or the New Zealand Memorial Service at Chunuk Bair, as there won't be enough time to attend both. You will need to state your choice on the memorial card register, on above link.

Before going to the Anzac Commemorative Site on 24th April, you will need to have your luggage packed and you will be instructed to put it in a vehicle. The next day you will board this vehicle directly from the ceremony site and depart for Istanbul.

The weather at Gallipoli can be highly variable and the site is exposed with no permanent shelter. Severe windchill can result in temperatures falling to below freezing overnight on 24 to 25 April. In contrast, you could experience hot temperatures during the following day. On previous Anzac Days, strong winds and heavy rain have been experienced on the site. You must ensure you come prepared for these conditions. You will be expected to bring your own mat to sit on and blanket/sleeping bag to cover up when waiting for the dawn service to commence. A warm coat, beanie and gloves would be a good idea.

There will be several walks to get between the various ceremony sites, one of which is around 6km over a hilly, unpaved road. Only bring what you can carry as there are no porters or shuttles.

There will be strong security at the site, similar to airport security and your bags will be checked. You cannot bring your own food and drink into the site but food and drink is available to purchase.

If for some reason you opt out of the Anzac Day Dawn Service, you will be able to remain at the hotel in Canakkale for the night of the 24th April, however there is no refund for opting out.

Destination Information

The ANZAC Day Dawn Service - Observed on ANZAC Day, this early service has its origins in an operational routine which is still observed by the Australian Army today. During battle, the half-light of dawn was one of the most favoured times for an attack. Soldiers in defensive positions were, therefore, woken up in the dark, before dawn, so by the time first light crept across the battlefield they were awake, alert, and manning their weapons. This was, and still is, known as "stand-to". It was also repeated at sunset.
