Destination Information

Chengdu - China's symbolic western capital and the residence of the country's most lovable black and white bear, Chengdu has an abundance to offer. With a fast-paced economy that is dragging China's west into the 21st century, it is no wonder that Chengdu's appeal is growing year on year. As the gateway into Sichuan Province's large collection of sights, as well as Chengdu being its own trove of historical and cultural treasures.

Day 2: Chengdu Panda Reserve

Meals: B, L

Begin this morning with a visit to Chengdu's famous Panda Conservation Centre where you can meet China's most celebrated bears. See them up close in surroundings that mirror their natural habitat as they chomp through piles of bamboo. A look around the informative museum gives an overview of the reserve's breeding programme.

Later, wander through the lively Wide and Narrow Alley and visit the matchmaking corner in People's Park, where parents gather to find suitors for their children.

Destination Information

Panda Conservation Centre - With over 80 pandas holding residence, the Chengdu Panda Research Base is equipped with the latest technology and research materials to gain a further understanding in how we can protect the panda and maintain, if not increase, its numbers. The park is set up to resemble the mountain and forest regions in north Sichuan, the original home of the Giant Panda, with extensive bamboo trees and large green spaces. Red Pandas, the Giant Panda's lovable cousin, and flamboyant peacocks roam the park, making for an interesting mix.

Day 3: Depart Chengdu

Meals: B

Your day is at leisure until the time comes to transfer to Chengdu Shuangliu airport or railway station for your onward journey.

Please note there is an additional supplement cost if you depart from Chengdu Tianfu Airport.
